

Introduction

Lecturing Staff Representative

Jean's introduction to South Lanarkshire College was as a mature student in 1998. She enjoyed her two years studying an HND in Social Sciences, which prepared her for a degree course with the Open University.

Jean joined the staff of the College in February 2004 working within the Faculty of Care. Jean teaches on the Scottish Wider Access Programme. This is a one year access course that prepares mature students for progression to Higher Education. During her time at the College she has gained her Teacher Qualification in Further Education, been a marker for the SQA and a member of the College Academic Board.